Forecast for Saturday 24 Sep 2022

Weather: Scattered cloud at first with a low risk of some patchy mist or fog to start, however this will clear quickly. Showers through the morning, likely becoming drier during the afternoon. There will be some cloud at times, but plenty of sunny spells in between. Feeling fresher than of late in a strong northerly breeze.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 60%, increasing to 80% by midday.

Low cloud and visibility: A chance of some mist or shallow fog patches in valleys towards dawn, which may cover some slopes and summits as it lifts and clears through the morning. Cloud will generally remain above the summits through much of the day, but may briefly drop to cover summits above 700m for a time, particularly in any showers. Very poor visibilities within any mist and fog. Moderate visibilities expected within any showers. Very good visibilities expected otherwise, with very good air clarity, allowing distant hills to be seen.
